COLUMBIAN COLLEGE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE SESSIONS OF THE SEVERAL Departments open as follows:

The PREPARATORY, September 9th; the COLLEGIATE September 23d; the THEOLOGICAL, October 7th; the LAW, October 14th; and the MEDICAL October 19th.

This College was organized with a reference to the oft urged suggestion of WASHINGTON, that a University, at the Federal Metropolis, would tend to the "assimilation of the principles, opinions and manners of our countrymen, by the common education of a portion of its youth from every quarter." Its graduates have verified the expectations of Madison and Monroe, that the facilities of hearing debates in Congress, arguments in the Supreme Court and Lectures from eminent men, and of visiting Libraries and Collections in science, gathered at this centre would foster a comprehensive mental development.

The Preparatory School gives a thorough training for business, and preparation for College. The College proper has eight efficient Professors; all the Chairs being filled. The Theological school has three Professors and Lecturers; the Law School four, and the Medical ten. The expenses are as low as at other Colleges—Number of students the past year, 434. VEGETABLE PILE OINTMENT.

TO THE PUBLIC.

For 23 Years I was nearly all cast with the Piles. After trying every remedy I could hear of and failing to receive any benefit, in 1857, I discovered a remedy, purely vegetable, which effected an entire cure and I have had no return of it.

Anxious to relieve the afflicted and to promote my own benefit, I made public my discovery and had the gratification to know that my remedy cured a large number of persons. My ointment was advertised in the public prints and I met with great success, until the war came on.

By the advice of friends, I have determined again to manufacture the Ointment and offer it for sale. Any number of certificates of its value could be obtained if necessary.

Price of box $1, and postage (fifteen cents.)

As soon as I can make arrangements, I will put it in the hands of the druggists of the State.

GENS. ROSECRANZ AND LEE.

Much has been said in the papers, for some days past, concerning an interview between Gen. Rosecranz, of the U. S. army, Gen. Robert E. Lee, and other distinguished Generals and civilians, at the White Sulphur Springs, in Virginia.

It is now understood, that the objects of the interview, on the part of General Rosecranz, were, if possible, to ascertain from the others the exact status of the Southern people, their temper towards the government, and their purposes for the future. It appears that the opinions of the Southern Generals and civilians were a unit, and that they corresponded precisely with the views of Gen. Rosecranz obtained by direct intercourse with the Southern people. It is understood that an address will be made to the people of the United States, setting forth the real feelings and aims and desires of the Southern people, as to the condition of affairs.

It will be remembered, that the Conservative Editorial Convention, in this city, before the National Convention met in New York, urged that the Southern delegates in that Convention should prepare an address, before leaving, and send it forth.

The ignorance at the North of the real feelings of the Southern people, as to the negro, and towards the government, is most remarkable. Men of life long probity, of unblemished characters, and the entire Conservative press of the South, have reiterated a thousand times their anxieties for peace and harmony, their friendship for the negro, their desire for Union; and yet it is plain the Northern people do not listen to them. A few carpet-baggers and travelling letter writers, by their persistent lying and misrepresentations, published in every nook and corner of the North, have had ten times more influence upon Northern public opinion than all the individual denials and disclaimers which have been published.

The Southern delegates at New York were remiss in neglecting the suggestion to prepare a full and truthful exhibit of the real purposes of the Southern people. This is what Gen. Rosecranz wants to meet the prejudices and bad feeling of the North, engendered against us, and what he seeks from the Southern Generals and civilians. But how much better prepared were the Southern delegates, in the National Democratic Convention, to prepare such an address, than any small number of gentlemen? We hope, however, that the address will be sent forth. It would be well, if every Southern man, who is known at the North, should address letters on this subject to their friends residing in the North and North West, for publication in the Northern papers.

REGISTRATION—ELECTION—VOTERS.

Every man in North Carolina, 21 years of age, black, white or mixed, who was born in the United States, or who has been naturalized, and who shall have been a resident in this State twelve months preceding the election, and thirty days in the county in which he offers to vote, is now entitled to register in October next, and to vote, on the third day of November next, for Presidential Electors and a member of Congress for his District.

The Registration law has not yet been printed. We will publish it as soon as we receive it. The registration will begin in October,—the precise day we do not now recollect, but we will inform our readers, as soon as we ascertain. By its terms, every man, who comes under the above description, will be allowed to register, by taking an oath or affirmation "to support and maintain the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the Constitution and laws of North Carolina, not inconsistent therewith." Of course every law-abiding citizen will be willing to do this.

No one will be allowed to vote, who does not register. Let the people remember this and act accordingly.

No man is now prevented from voting in North Carolina by the Reconstruction Acts, or any other laws. The Howard amendment disfranchises those named, from holding office, but not from voting.

THE UNCONSTITUTIONAL MILITIA.

The Yankee paper in this city announces that the man, "who writes himself Governor," and superadds thereto the grandiloquent title of "Commander in-Chief," intends,—despite Secretary Schofield's publication of the Congressional prohibition,—to proceed with the organization of the detailed negro militia. As we have heretofore intimated, the Federal authorities will probably interpose to put a stop to the "Governor's" resistance of the law of Congress. It is somewhat significant that Gen. Schofield should have stated, at the time of his publication of the clause of the Army Appropriation Bill, forbidding the enrolment of the militia in North Carolina, among other States, that it was intended for the information of army officers in the South. We believe that Gen. Miles now commands in North Carolina.

The valiant "Commander in Chief" has made some appointments, preliminary to the organization of his "Negro Carpet-bag-Scallawag-Militia," (N. C. S. M.) They are:

Abel W. Fisher, of Bladen, Adjutant General. We suppose, though we never heard of Abel before, that he is a carpet-bagger.

F. G. Martindale, of Washington County, carpet-bagger, Major General of the Eastern Division of the State.

Willie D. Jones, a Captain in the Confederate army up to the capture of Roanoke Island, when he collapsed, Major General of the Middle Division.

Jno. Q. A. Bryan, of Wilkes, a deserter from the Confederate army and afterwards a Captain in a predatory Company in the Federal army, Major General of the Western Division.

Robert M. Douglas, of Rockingham.

William A. Moore, of Chowan.

William S. Pearson, of Burke.

Where are Cuffee Mayo and Wilson Carey?

The "Governor" has not yet prescribed the uniform of his pets. We suggest one for Maj. Gen. Willie D., viz: A chapeau, made of paper, upon which shall be inscribed "Negroes should not be allowed to testify in the Courts"; a swallow tailed coat, with a strip pinned a posteriori, and emblazoned with the device, "I voted against the Howard Amendment;" spurs sixteen inches long; fourteen pistols, and the sword which he used in the "rebel" service, girded around his waist. The toutensemble will be complete, and military glory will be at its climax.

NAIL THE FALSEHOODS TO THE COUNTER.

Almost every day we hear of some floating rumor, circulated by Radicals for truth, designed to damage leading Conservatives and Democrats and to injure the Conservative cause. Nail them to the counter, friends. Believe them not, until you hear them from truthful sources.

We hear that some Conservatives, who do not read the papers, and who were disfranchised by the Reconstruction Acts, are told that they are still disfranchised and cannot vote. No citizen of the State is prevented from voting now.

The names of several leading Conservatives are bruited about, as having determined to vote for Grant and Colfax. Set these reports down as false, until you meet with a man who can tell the truth and who knows. Ask him.

APPREHENSIONS IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The turbulent spirit of the blacks in South Carolina, their threats and drillings, and their tendency to riot, especially in Charleston, led to the call of a public meeting of the citizens there, the preparation of an address to the people, and the appointment of Mr. Campbell to visit the President of the United States, and ask his protection. The address is published in the National Intelligencer, and its appeals are wise and judicious. Some extracts will be found, in another column. We hope that Gov. Scott, who has manifested a conservative spirit, in some instances, will join the influence of his office to secure the necessary protection. Col. Bomford, who is in command in that State, will do all in his power to prevent disorder, we are sure.

"W."—It will be seen that our correspondent "W" considers that the rem dy for Judge Pearson's alarms, is not voting for Grant and Colfax, but for the Conservatives and Democrats to advocate universal suffrage. We differ with "W," in the latter respect, entirely, and believe that nine-tenths of the Conservatives and Democrats of this State, and three fourths of the white Radicals, believe that too much suffrage has already done incurable evil, and that universal suffrage will destroy the Republic and force the Empire upon us.

THE PROSPECT.

A highly intelligent citizen of this State, now sojourning at the North, writes, under date of Aug. 25th: "I have diligently mingled, and I can only say, as the London Police say, "from information I have received," Seymour will certainly be elected. I cannot here particularize what I have heard, but I have heard from near both headquarters.

The Democrats are taking all the even bets they can get, on the general result."

MAINE.—The New York Herald thinks the probabilities are strong that Maine will go for Seymour and Blair. So do we. In that case, the Herald says, "upon what can the Radicals count, if Maine goes against them. They may get Massachusetts and South Carolina."

HON. JOHN MORRISSEY, member of Congress from New York, denies, in a card, the story that he is for Grant and Colfax, which the Radical paper in this city parades in its columns. He is out and out for Seymour and Blair.

SURRY.—A correspondent writing us from Dobson, under date of the 20th, says:

"Surry will give a majority of votes to Seymour and Blair. We will make a change, in this County, of at least 500 votes. The military bill is denounced by all parties.

The crops are very good—unusually so."

THE RADICAL LEGISLATIVE ADDRESS—PROSCRIPTION.

GOLDSBORO, Aug. 27, 1868.

MESSRS EDITORS:—I have just read the Address of the Republican members of the Legislature, published in the Standard, of the 24th., and I think it is, without doubt, one of the weakest arguments I have ever seen brought out to try to bolster up a bad and fast failing cause. It is but another batch of scallawag and carpet-bagger lies to fool the negro. Under the head of "threats and intimidation," I think there is some of the most brazen inconsistency I have ever seen. The address quotes an extract from a speech made in Caswell County, by some Democrat, in which he advised the landholders to employ no laborers who would not vote the white man's ticket at the coming election,—that the Democrats owned the land, the meat, &c. The address harps upon this speech, unduly, and quotes the Bible to show the sinfulness of such a course by the Democratic party. And they do so with as much brazen impudence as if the Republican party were not the first to inaugurate this (to them it will be) suicidal policy. They claim that the land owners have no moral right to discharge from employment, or eject from their lands, the negro who votes against them, when it is well known by them that their party were the beginners of the policy. I would like to know if it is any worse for a Democrat to drive a negro from off his land, or refuse to employ him, if he votes the Radical ticket, than it is for W. A. Smith and E. R. Stanly, the Radical Presidents of the A. and N. C. and the N. C. R. Roads, to throw out of employment white men, because they voted the white man's ticket! These two men, alone, in obedience, no doubt, to orders received from their master, the man "who writes himself Governor," have discharged from employment scores of good white men, to make room for negroes; and why were they discharged? Simply because they voted the Conservative ticket, last Spring, and will have the manliness to vote for Seymour and Blair this Fall!

And has not this same man, "who writes himself Governor," said, in his inaugural and his message, that the offices, from the most inferior to the most exalted, should be filled only by persons who voted the Radical ticket, and that no others need expect any employment, or any work, in which the State was interested? How well he and his subordinates are carrying out this policy can every day be seen by noticing the various appointments from Wind Mill magistrates up. I would like for some Radical to tell me if it is such a mean thing to discharge a negro, because he votes the Radical ticket, if the same rule will not apply to the other party, who discharge white men. The negro, whom a landholder discharges, owns not one rent of that tract of land; the owner certainly has a right to do as he likes with his own land; while, on the other hand, the Railroads that I have named are two-thirds State property, in which every tax-payer in the State has an interest, to the extent of his taxes. And this being the case, every tax-payer, who has been turned off the Railroads by these men, Smith and Stanly, has, to a certain extent, been ejected from his own premises.

This, of course, looks all right to the Radicals, and why? Because these men thus discharged are white men and Democrats; while to discharge a negro, or refuse to employ one, if he votes the Radical ticket, is horrible, and why? Simply because he is a negro and a Radical.

I have always been opposed to this proscriptive policy, until it was forced on us by the other party. We are compelled to retaliate in self defence, and the Democratic party, in my opinion, are worse than fools, if they do not use the weapons the Radicals are using against us.

O. K.

RATHER COSTLY INSURANCE.

Messrs. Editors:—Since I wrote you of the new method of securing the property of the University at Chapel Hill, some change, as I learn, has been made there. The eleven soldiers have been removed, and their difficult task has been committed to six men who are not soldiers. Still the experiment seems to be a rather expensive one. Each of these guardians must be paid at least one dollar a day. This amounts to $2,190,—if each has two dollars, as is likely enough, it comes to $4 380, and, added to the salary of Mr. Harris, can hardly reach a less sum than about $5,500, or $5 500 as before. There is some improvement here, and see but for the greater extravagance of the former trial we should think this a rather costly business. One man, we should think, might do the work reasonably well. But we suppose there are six grumbling Radicals to be provided for.

One would think that such a job might have been entrusted to the former negro servants of the University. They had served there long and well. They know as these strangers can not know what the College property is. They have proved themselves thoroughly trustworthy. They were good Radicals too. Perhaps they would have done this service more cheaply. But free to their instincts, the party in power gives to the negroes nothing "but has money in it." It may be that the negroes are too trustworthy, for we learn that when the soldiers left, they—so it is surmised—carried off the portable contents of several rooms in which some of the old students had left their furniture. And we hear that some of the newly chosen keepers of the property of the University are such as prudent men would scarcely select to guard their private property. DOLLARS.

P. S.—The fact is, I learn, that each of these six keepers is to be paid $35 a month and his board, so that each will cost the Trustees $660 a year, and the whole party $3,960, beside Mr. Harris' salary.

Rather costly that. D.

From the Goldsboro Rough Notes.

The following is a verbatim copy of a judgment rendered by Isaac Sasser, one of Billy Holden's negro Squires lately appointed for Wayne County. It was on a warrant issued against Enos Exum, colored, for bastardy, and was written after having an experienced hand to dictate to him.

Is this reconstruction? Where are the rest of Holden's Squires?

Greeley addresses the Radical world through the Radical moral organ, the Independent, in an appeal to make a great fight for Grant. But he has an ingenious faculty of making an appeal far more like a wail of despair than a stimulator of courage and hope. He thus closes:

"Men and brethren! We must carry Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania for Grant and Colfax. With these—or even half of them—there can be no mistake as to the result. Without at least two of them, all is in doubt."

Bravo!

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON AND THE CRISIS.

(CONCLUDED.)

Without doubt, no thinking man believes for one moment, that the thought of re-enslaving the colored people is entertained by a single sane man in all the South. None but the most ignorant of the blacks can have such "undefined impression," if even these.—The thing is a bugbear, an unprincipled electioneering trick, gotten up for the express purpose of catching the ignorant and the timid. It is remarkable that Chief Justice Pearson (it is the mildest alternative) should be found to be one of the gulls!—But the deepest pain, not unmingled with a sentiment closely bordering on contempt, takes full possession of us, when we witness the humiliating spectacle of the lowering of the logical clearness of his great legal mind, to the disgusting level of such Radical nonsense, as a measure being extra-constitutional and yet not unconstitutional at the same time, for the purpose of encouraging this "undefined impression" in the colored mind. It is too well known that it was the "impression" of the great legal lights contemporary with that instrument, that the Constitution was a concession of powers by the States to form a common servant, to wit: the United States government, for certain purposes therein particularly enumerated; that these powers were so well defined and strictly limited by the instrument itself, that it was thought to be nearly impossible to mistake them. But, however this may be, it is expressly provided by the 10th article of the Amendments, that "the powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people." Now, to a person of plain, unbiased habit of thought, that a measure can be outside of that Constitution, above or beyond it, in other words extra constitutional, and not be opposed to it, prohibited by it, or unconstitutional, seems about as absurd a distinction as is commonly met in a lifetime! Eton logic is a mere bagatelle to it. The Chief Justice tells us, however, that such was the unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court in the two several cases of ex parte Hughes and Cook vs. Cook, Phillips' Reports. As to this, it does not so appear in a careful perusal of those decisions. If that was, however, the deliberate opinion, we ought not, perhaps, to be surprised, though not the less pained, that they should have been brought to sell out the concern to the Radical party, and have consented (as the papers inform us) to abandon, for a time, the high and august position of chief arbiters of the laws of the State, for the contemptible and contracted honor of presiding at the hustings of a political party! What a fall from the glorious days of Gaston, Taylor, Henderson and Ruffin! What a painful sense of the degradation of their honorable office, must these gentlemen feel, when they come fully to consider the unwonted not to say dangerous character of the step they have taken! Woe to North Carolina when her Judges mingle actively in the political divisions of the people! Let even blood Justice throw away her scales, and inspiring Hope veil her face with tears!

But, to return to this "undefined impression." I admit that, if such a thing exists, it is a serious matter; that to remove it is an object worthy the patriot's most earnest consideration. It is fraught with danger, and ought to be met at once; met with a spirit of concession—with an abandonment of mere senseless prejudice, however venerable for its antiquity, and with that exalted patriotism demanded by the occasion. The greatest care, however, is requisite in distinguishing, amidst a chaos of crude conjectures, what are the precise measures needed, what concessions, if timely initiated, will "solve the times" and minister health to the body politic. Will the elevation of Grant and Colfax accomplish this object? (I say it with great deference to those who differ with me on the subject,) it seems to me that a man must be more or less than a reasoning being, who can see in such a result anything but the direst calamity in the whole country, and absolute destruction to the Southern States. The catalogue of evils I have but barely glanced at in this communication, as a part of the heritage of this party, unendurable as they have been save at the point of the bayonet, will be but a scanty foretaste of what may be expected, of what will be sure to come. And why should they not? These matters have all gone before the people for their decision in this Presidential contest; and if they elect Grant and Colfax, even though it should be effected upon a subordinate issue, yet it will be demanded that the people have approved of all the measures of the dominant party; and this demand cannot be successfully nor reasonably resisted. The Constitution, which has long been scoffed at and practically disregarded upon the trick of extra-constitutional necessity, but still, from prudential motives, not utterly discarded, will be at once thrown aside, as a relic of the barbarism of the 18th. century, and as a curious specimen of the old regime of our revolutionary fathers; and the will of the "man of no policy," or his managers, for all time to come, (or at least during his life,) backed by the power of the purse and sword, will be the government of this once proud republic. That is to say, if the great Democratic and Conservative mass are prepared to surrender every vestige of their ancient liberties without a struggle.—Of all the calamities, therefore, that can possibly befall this country, none can compete, in its untold effects upon every interest of humanity, with the election of Ulysses S. Grant and Schuyler Colfax to the positions of President and Vice President of these United States.

Casting aside then the hazardous nostrum suggested by Judge Pearson, the question recurs, how can this grave local issue be safely and surely met and settled upon a peaceable and lasting basis? It seems to me that the answer is self suggestive. Let the Democratic and Conservative party in these States divest itself of the passion very naturally engendered by the heartless tyranny practised on our people these last few years; tyranny unexampled in the history of the civilized world. Let them forget the manner in which certain undoubted and strictly logical results of the recent fearful struggle have been inaugurated. These effects are natural and inevitable; and would, beyond a peradventure, have speedily suggested themselves to the good sense of our people, had they been left to their own unstrammeled and voluntary resolution, to which alone they exclusively belong. Let not, then, the sense of natural justice, the dictates of far seeing statesmanship, be warped from their healthy, vigorous, divine impulses, by a spirit of vindictive revenge against those who have usurped our rights and prerogatives. Let the whole party, to a man, accept of the political equality of the races as a settled, fixed fact. Such a concession, fraught with untold good to ourselves, our children and the whole country, cannot possibly, by even the most ingenious distortion, be productive of harm or even inconvenience to us.

The colored people, themselves, have long earnestly desired it; not with the view of securing to themselves power for sinister purposes, but for the sake of uniting with their former owners, the intelligent and property-owning masses of these misgoverned States, for the general good. They do not hesitate to declare even to their Yankee patrons, that they much prefer (and most naturally) those amongst whom they have been born and reared, to the exotic refuse now making use of them as an element of power, for their own most selfish aggrandizement. How could they heretofore unite with us? We met them at the threshold with a denial of the first distinguishing qualification of a free man. By a singular fatality, many of our leading men have blindly overlooked the great political value of this part of our population—a part, which, from physical causes (if no other) can never be got rid of, and which every motive of self preservation, as well as other departments of self interest, admonish us to conciliate. Many thoughtless persons even take a foolish pleasure in effecting their estrangement, by the gratification of some of the lowest instincts of our nature, in many instances, it is true, in matters of trivial importance, but which that sensitive people (more sensitive because ignorant) feel most keenly. This is not wise. There are some, too, who think such a policy dangerous to white supremacy. If this were so, it would be better to have them for our friends, and separate them from their Yankee allies. But the fact is far otherwise. In numbers they can never be a source of apprehension in this State; and the recent instance of Alabama shows how easily they can be utilized. With such a concession, then, blazoned on our flag, victory would flow to us in overwhelming numbers. The timid of our native population, who have heretofore united with the enemies of their native State, from apprehensions of danger, would take courage to leave them; the individuals who cast their allegiance from prudential motives, would desert a sinking ship, and that result, in comparison with which almost every other sinks into insignificance, will at once be inaugurated, to-wit: the exodus of the great unwashed. Then will begin the flight of unclean beasts, which, like the harpies at the feast of Æneas' devoted band, have so long polluted with their foul touch the sacred places of our dear old Fatherland. The air will grow dark with their multitudinous flight, and the din of their wings will be "as the sound of many waters." God hasten the day!

But, if there are any who still nurse the pride of race with too partial a devotion, and think that participation in the direction of public affairs ought to be confined to the whites alone, it is my duty to warn them that, in these States, at least, it is now too late. The decree has gone forth—the matter is settled and sealed. Settled in accordance with all the lessons of history; fixed by the eternal laws of right and justice. Let us proclaim this openly, boldly everywhere, and, trust me, it will not be long before the dark cloud which seems to lower over our stricken people, with portentous omen, will give place to the cheering, life-giving beams of the sun of newly-born prosperity and peace—peace, intelligent and lasting, because founded on friendly concession and mutual interests,—a peace with which a nation may safely begin a new career of greatness and glory,—such a peace as was promised to, and only properly belongs to, those to whom the angels announced it, on heralding the advent of a new-born Savior—to "men of good will."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—St. John's College, Annapolis, Md.,—James C. Welling, President: This is one of the most venerable and celebrated Institutions of learning in the country, and, under the auspices of Mr. Welling and his Faculty, it was never more efficiently and ably conducted. See advertisement.

Agricultural Lime: Thomas H. Briggs, Fayetteville Street.

Five or Six first-class Machinists and Ten good Carpenters wanted: Jno. P. Divine, Master of Machinery of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad.

Desirable residence in the Eastern Ward To rent: W. H. Jones & Co.

Old Southampton Brandy, Seed Wheat and Grass Seed, Corn, &c.: B. P. Williamson.

Meeting of Commissioners to locate State Penitentiary: C. L. Harris, Superintendent of Public Works.

We invite attention to the Prospectus of the Petersburg Index, in another column. The Index is one of the most valuable of our exchanges, and we can cordially commend it as an able, reliable, live paper—thoroughly devoted to the great cause of Constitutional liberty. It is a warm advocate of North Carolina interests, and merits the support of our people, who want a Virginia paper.

ALMOST A ROW.—We learn that as Jno. R. Harrison, Esq., a Justice of the Peace, was going from his house to the Baptist Church, on Thursday evening last, he met a number of colored men going towards the colored Baptist Church, near the D pot, who were talking boisterously and using profane and improper language. He kindly admonished them as to their conduct. One impudently asked what right had he to admonish them? He told them that he was a Peace officer, and that they must be quiet. Another fellow spoke out, and asked "what sort of a d——d officer are you?" Mr. Harrison kicked him and told him that he would take him to the guard-house, if he did not behave himself. At this several of them gathered around, one with a large rock, and ordered him to release him. A gentleman and lady were passing at the time, and Mr. Harrison let go the man, but told them he would call them to account.

We learn that Mr. Harrison informed the police, one of them a colored man, and that three of the negroes have been arrested, and brought before the Mayor, who committed them to jail for the outrage, to appear at Court to answer, on failure of giving bond.

Every good citizen, white or black, will sustain the authorities. No colored man, who is a friend to the peace of society, will countenance such conduct among colored people. Their names we have not heard.—The Radicals have encouraged these things in the blacks, and they will find that the blacks will no more respect or be controlled by them, than by other people.

THANKS to A. C. Miller, of Shelby, for a club of subscribers to the Sentinel.

SAD OCCURRENCE.—On Monday last, Mr. John T. Nelson, living on Adams' Creek, in this county, went deer-driving early in the morning. When he returned, he placed his gun in the porch to dry, it having become wet during the hunt, and neglected to carry it in the house afterwards. After breakfast he went into the field to do some necessary farm work. While there a slight rain began to fall. He started for the house but had proceeded only a short distance when he heard the report of his gun.—Hastening his footsteps he got home, and on the threshold found his wife stretched dead. It is supposed, from the appearance of the gun and the position of Mrs. Nelson, that she went to take the gun out of the rain and struck the hammer against the door. The entire charge entered her throat and passed out at the back of the head, producing instantaneous death.

Mr. Nelson was found by the neighbors in a condition bordering on insanity, and, though a strong minded man, his friends are afraid that his reason will be permanently unsettled. His feelings are probably aggravated by the fact that his wife was a bride of but two short months.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.—The committee on military affairs have reported a bill authorizing the Governor to organize and equip one or more regiments of volunteers for each Congressional district, to be composed of loyal men, subject to the revised regulations of the United States army; the expense to be paid by the State Treasurer in sums not exceeding $50,000 at any one time. The Governor is empowered to declare martial law in any county, and to quarter troops in such counties; the expense to be paid by tax on the people of said county.

We would suggest to the negroes that whenever the Radicals come to them and pretend to be such good friends, to ask them why it was the Radical leaders in the County kicked up such a fuss when Aleck Vogler and Bob Waugh, two colored men, were appointed Magistrates, and why it was they wrote to Raleigh and had the appointments scratched off? Colored men, the Radicals say you are good enough to vote for them, but not good enough to hold office. Under these circumstances, are they honestly your friends, or are they only humbugging you to get you to vote for them?—Winston Sentinel.

A writer in Lippincott's gets off this: "You call that a trunk, do you?" growls a dejected porter. "It only needs a lightning-rod to make it look a darned sight more like a boarding-house than what's to be found in Saratoga?"

GREAT MASS MEETING IN JOHNSTON.

We learn, from gentlemen who were present, that the Democratic and Conservative Mass Meeting and Barbecue, at Walter Moore's, in Johnston county, on Thursday, was a grand affair. It is estimated that at least 2 000 persons were present. Five hundred ladies were in attendance,—enough to fill two large tables, sixty five yards each in length. The Club from Auburn, in this county, one hundred and twenty strong, and the Club from Banks', some sixty strong,—all mounted, wearing sashes and badges, carrying banners, &c.,—went down, and added greatly to the impressiveness of the occasion. The enthusiasm is described as having been intense and unbounded.

In the morning, the people were addressed by M. A. Bledsoe and J. H. Abell, Esqs., and, in the afternoon, by Hon. Silas H. Rogers, L. R. Waddell, Esq., Col. Geo. H. Faribault, Willis H. Sanders and W. H. Avera, Esqs.

The fires are brightly burning. The time has never been before when such a crowd could have been collected at any point in our sister county.

THE TEXT.

"I am alarmed at the condition of the country and fear we are drifting into another civil war."—Judge Pearson's letter to the Standard.

A LEGITIMATE COMMENT.

Mr. Boyden hits at the only real cause of alarm:

"Mr. Speaker, I am alarmed at the condition of the country. It is proposed to send arms to North Carolina, that the people may use them against each other. Great God! we cannot afford to fight each other. KEEP AWAY YOUR ARMS! DO NOTHING TO IRRITATE OUR PEOPLE, BUT DO EVERYTHING IN YOUR POWER TO ASSUAGE AND HEAL THE EXCITEMENT THERE. We want no arms. I WARN THE HOUSE THAT IF ARMS ARE SENT THERE WE WILL BE RUINED; we cannot live there. If we need anything in the way of arms, in God's name send an army of the United States there, but do not arm neighbor against neighbor. There never was a more mischievous measure than this proposition to arm one class of our people against another."—Mr. Boyden's speech in the House of Representatives.

WANTED—Stock in the "Printing ring" now managed by "Guy," Holden, and a carpet-bag concern styled "N. Paige & Co.," at Raleigh. Our name must be kept behind the curtain, like the 'Guy's' and 'N. Paige & Co.' and Gen. Littlefield must do the "ringing." We'll pay a big sum for an interest, and obligate to divide the spoils with the swindled State.—Milton Chronicle.

Friend Evans is right. As matters are now managed in favor of filling the pockets of the owners of the Standard, by the public printing, we doubt if there is any stock in the State, that pays equal to it. The profits of the Standard newspaper are small, indeed, but the State Treasury will feel the smart of the public printing, beyond anything ever known in this State.

NEGRO OUTRAGES.—At a recent Radical meeting in Mobile, Ala., the negroes, numbering about 1,500, were so completely carried away with the excitement, that they acted more like brutes and savages than human beings. Colored Democrats were assaulted, knocked down and beaten—one of them hardly escaping with his life. Pistols were discharged, and the affair wound up by a general row among themselves. A negro, driving a dray, from which was displayed a Seymour and Blair flag, was knocked from his seat, the dray turned over, and the horse cut loose; and it was only through the superiority of his speed, that the drayman escaped being beaten to death with Clubs.

"Let us have peace."

The State elections held so far, this year, have resulted as follows:

Connecticut, Democratic	1 700	6
Oregon, Democratic	1,000	3
Kentucky, Democratic	90,000	11
Nebraska, Democratic	1,000	3
Total	93 700	23
Rhode Island, Republican	5 000	4
Democratic majority thus far	88,700	19

GOOD IDEA.—One of the colored carters hoisted a Seymour and Blair flag over his dray yesterday, in order, we suppose, to show his appreciation of the claims of those gentlemen to the Presidency. Cannot our citizens show their appreciation of the carter's course by giving him constant employment? Let the colored men see that you are friends only to those who are friends to you—and when the day of election comes he will vote as you do.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

Married in Salt Lake City, 16th. instant, in the presence of the Saints, Brigham Young to Mrs. J. R. Martin, Miss Emily P. Martin, Miss L. M. Pendergrast, Mrs. R. M. Jenickson, Miss Susie P. Cleveland, all of the county of Burke, England. No cards.

HOME TRUTHS.

THE GREATEST BURDEN ON THE PEOPLE.

I will tell you where the body of your money is going. The greatest burden on your shoulders to-day is the War Department of the United States. Gen. Grant is the Commanding General. For a time he was the Secretary of War, and now they seek to make him President of the United States, and I see upon the poles they are raising is a representation of a man in General's clothing with three stars upon the shoulder, mounted upon horseback. What does that mean? On a Democratic pole was an effigy of the old Democratic rooster who, as soon as the fox should show himself to prey upon the farm, gives the note of warning. That is our emblem. But the emblem of Radicals is an appropriate one. It is the man on horseback with all the regalia, and the still Commanding General who receives eighteen thousand dollars a year pay. And this is the man that on horseback represents the party that wants to put him in power. We don't propose to have it. Gen. Grant ought to be rewarded, and he has got a very handsome office now, worth $17,000 or $18,000 a year. How much do you suppose the army costs?—Grant's last report says the army is fifty-six thousand strong. The Secretary of the Treasury, in his report, says that $93,294,615,45 were required to support the army last year. Over ninety five millions for one year—nearly twenty millions more than it took to support the whole Government in the time of Buchanan! Nearly two thousand dollars to a man, nearly two millions to a regiment! More than it took to support Napoleon's army to a man, when he fought all Europe, and more than it took to support the English army when they fought Napoleon! Why is it? The soldier don't spend the money, for he only gets sixteen dollars a month, and his clothing costs between forty and fifty dollars a year, and his hard-tack don't cost much more. It don't go to the soldier. It must go somewhere. Somebody has been getting rich, and somebody has been paying for it. You have been helping to pay this, and you have not been getting rich. They spent $200,000,000 a year. What has been done with it? We have not had any satisfactory account of it. The Judge of your Court here, if a complaint is made against an administrator, will issue a citation for him and bring him to account, and if he is found dishonest, he will turn him out. You say that is right—Well, gentlemen, the great Common Pleas Court of this country is in session, and the people of the United States, who constitute that great court, have issued their citation to the Radical leaders to come into court and settle their accounts. They are asking, "What have you done with the $1 200,000,000 that you collected from the people? What have you done with the $300,000,000 a year that you have spent of the people's money? Do you recollect what a fuss there was raised in Mr. Buchanan's administration, one year, because a military force was sent out to Utah to keep the Mormons and their wives in order under the laws of the United States? And that year Mr. Buchanan, to support the Government in all its possessions at home and abroad, spent $82,000,000. A large sum, it seemed to me then, but now they spend in a year, over and above the interest on the public debt, $22,000,000 more than Mr. Burchanan spent for every purpose of government. What has become of it? I think the Freedmen's Bureau took some.

Don't you think gentlemen, we had better change this? To keep the people of the South down, we have been supporting five standing armies in the South. Let us call them home, and let the people once more govern by their own will. Let us take the military man out of his seat, and put the judge back again; let us have the court martial out of their court, and put the jury there; let us abolish the military decree and put the law back again. Just let the people govern themselves; let them make their own laws, according to the sentiments of the fathers, and it will not cost much. Why, back in the times of John Quincy Adams, it only cost about three million dollars to carry on the Government; in the time of Andrew Jackson it only cost twenty million dollars; but now it has gone up to three hundred millions, and if you don't stop it you are ruined.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, Aug. 21.

The grandest organization ever effected in any State in this country is the "White Boys in Blue," now being marshalled for the contest in Ohio. These organizations are formed into companies, fully uniformed and equiped, with the exception of carrying muskets, torchlights being issued instead. Officers are elected by companies, and also in large places where full regiments are organized regimental officers are chosen. No one but a voter is permitted to join, neither any man who has not an honorable discharge from the army. The power and strength of this grand army of the "bone and sinew" of our recent armies can readily be imagined. They present an undivided front, and it is estimated at least forty thousand (40,000) have already enrolled themselves for service in the cause of Seymour, Blair and the Constitution in Ohio.

In Cleaveland nearly one thousand names are already upon the rolls, and, with confidence, it is believed within two weeks the number will reach fifteen hundred.

The splendid army of the "White Boys in Blue" has greatly dispirited the Radicals, who have signally failed in their efforts to form organizations of "tanners," and the like. Three attempts have been made by the Radicals within the last month to hold mass meetings in Cleaveland, which have been total failures, both in a numerical point of view and in reference to the enthusiasm of those present. The Radical leaders are disheartened and discouraged, and are using the most bitter threats and curses against their State Central Committee. The skies look bright for the Democratic cause, and if a vote were taken to-morrow, Gov. Seymour's majority would not be less than 50,000.

The defeat of Ashley, Bingham, Cooper, Wilson, Stevenson, and Schenck is already conceded by the Radical papers, while the Democracy are confident of their ability to carry two, and perhaps three, more of the nineteen Congressional districts.

Your readers may rest assured that Ohio is alive to the work before it, and will give no uncertain sound when the battle closes in October, which will be. But the bugle calls for the grand conflict to come, which will bring victory to the Democratic banner, under the lead of our chieftains, Horatio Seymour and Francis P. Blair, Jr.

RESERVE.

A RESPECTABLE FAMILY GATHERING.—We learn that Wm Burkhead, of Randolph, held a family gathering at his house, a few days since, on which occasion there were present 85 lineal descendants and 21 connected with him by marriage—making the snug sum of 106. There were, also, present, about 400 other persons. Mr. Burkhead is in his 87th year, his wife 82; both are in good health.—Greensboro' Patriot.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28. P. M.

General Meade visited the President and Schofield to-day, and departed for a temporary visit North. He says, "He is sure that the Southern people mean to do right."

Brief Cabinet meeting to-day. Browning, Evarts and Randall absent.

The President and Secretary of War referred the Hon. Mr. Campbell, who comes from Charleston to secure assurances of safety, to the recent orders to Gen. Buchanan and Meade, and the opinion of the Attorney General. The President and Secretary sympathize with the objects of Mr. Campbell's mission, but can do nothing further, unless emergencies arise. The sixth Infantry, part of which is in the Indian country, will be concentrated in Charleston.

General Rosecranz has arrived. He is bearer of no address from the Southern Generals, and does not know that such an address is contemplated. His visit to Gen. Lee and other Generals was on his own motion. He acted without advice of, or counsel with, any person or party. His intercourse was cordial and pleasant, and conclusive to his mind that the Southern Generals were no impediments to restoration and reconciliation.

A special Treasury Agent leaves soon for Northern parts, with a view of reducing the number of men and the expense of collecting customs.

AMAZING IGNORANCE OF A CARPET BAGGER.—The Raleigh Standard has a new editor, who is evidently a man of great erudition. This is shown by the following astonishing discoveries, to-wit—that Greece and Rome and France had their scalawags, to whom "all that is glorious or inspiring in their histories" is to be traced by the anti-quary or historian.

Now, this wise, the learned and accomplished scalawag of the Standard makes the following remarkable announcement:

"England had her scalawags, and they hung Charles the First, and let the foundation of the British Constitution."

The received history is somewhat opposed to this statement, the popular belief being that his majesty lost his head; but, we bow in deference to the superior information of the Standard, and hereafter will try to remember that the unhappy Charles was hanged, or "hung," as our learned authority writes it.

In addition we will endeavor to forget the name of Runnymede, and "go back on" De Lolme, Hallam, Guizot, and others who have given their crude ideas on the "British Constitution," which hereafter be it known was not the work of those who out of the scalawags of England, God save the mark! Now, ought not such an ignoramus as this fellow shows himself to be make acquainted with the terms of some muscular schoolmarm of the strong minded variety?—Norfolk Virginian.

GEN D. H. HILL.—A Louisville paper learns that it is highly probable that Gen. D. H. Hill will determine to locate in Kentucky, and associate himself with Rev. B. H. McCown in the management of Forest Home Academy.

TO LAND OWNERS.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED, BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINERAL LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any persons or parties having 5,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road, that if they will agree to subdivide their lands at the expense of the Company the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation or as ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 200 acres, as acquired, within three years; or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to revert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is settled.

The object of this system is to bring into the State an industrious and thrifty population and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other States and is said to be working finely.

This Company was chartered by our Legislature of 1868. Land owners will please address me for particulars at Belleville, N. C.

UNIVERSAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR FEMALE RISKS.

LOSSES PAID IN THIRTY DAYS.

No Restrictions on Travel or Residence

OF NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The Business of this Company is exclusively confined to the Insurance of First Class, healthy lives.

The Distinctive Feature

Of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium, for stated sums insured, which is immediate, sure and certain, in lieu of a high rate of premium and promised dividend, which is distant, contingent and uncertain—this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

☞ The premiums charged by the "UNIVERSAL" are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the Mutual Companies.

The "UNIVERSAL" desires to call the particular attention of Agents and others to the new "Return Premium Table," which has been prepared by the Actuary of the Company. It will be noticed that these Rates average less than the ordinary rates charged by Mutuals. The inducements offered by this table are equal to a reversionary dividend of one hundred per cent. of all premiums paid.

Rates to Secure $1.000 at Death, with a Return of all Premiums paid.

Age.	Ordinary Life Rate	Ten Payments Rate	Age.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate
25	$21.49	$27 48	45	$33 48	$79.18
30	25 00	33 10	50	74.57	104 27

Example.—A man aged 30 insures his life for $1,000, and pays $33.10 per annum on the 10 payment plan, and dies after having paid five annual payments, or $215,50, his policy will be good for $1,215.50.

OF THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $10,000,000

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent. 57,000 Members, and constantly increasing.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.

Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby, will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur thereon or in consequence of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon the surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new insurance and, therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of iniquitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which an constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we shall meet as a subject and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By-Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the —— Club of —— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democrat, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina, for the support and defence of the Constitution of the United States; the promotion of the peace and good will of society and the harmony of the States; the prosperity and enforcement of law and order by legitimate forms, and the utter destruction of Radicalism every where, by the election of HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, as President, and FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Co-responding Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties usual to such offices, and who, together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART. 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt may be altered, amended or changed at any public meeting of the Club by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We, whose names are hereto annexed, do solemnly pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the objects and aims of the Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability, every member of this Association throughout the state.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and shall be held by the Treasurer, who shall keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or each of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements.

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for membership, also monied donations for the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as directing the correspondence, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order, (and the officers of the Club shall be ex-officio officers of the Board;) when the names of members shall be presented for registration or dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial business of the Club, and such other private matters as may be necessary. All members of the Club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient, and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board itself.

6. Any member of the Club intending to move to any other section, may obtain a certificate of his membership in this Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraud or mal-practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Clubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint-hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they be come of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, these pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!
